

Speaker Introduction

International Business Speaker, Author, Facilitator, Advisor & Consultant

Today we are pleased to welcome Paul Bridle.

Paul is a Leadership Methodologist, which means he studies leadership and what makes effective leaders. Paul is truly one of those experts who speak. His background is in business and he has experience of setting up, running and managing businesses.

Paul started to study leadership over two decades ago as a hobby. Very quickly it moved into becoming an obsession. He spent more and more time examining leadership styles, looking at successful organisations and the characteristics that made them successful. In particular he wanted to understand the leadership that drove these organisations.

Personal Research sits at the core of what makes Paul successful as a Leadership Methodologist. He still spends over 25% of his year visiting organisations all around the world. Tonight/today he will share with us some of the insights he has managed to acquire.

Please join me in welcoming Paul Bridle.
